

Shabbat Shalom at Home

The Shabbat Shalom at Home Kit has arrived at the homes of all Beth El congregants. The kit contains all you need to be a part of the Beth El-wide Shabbat evening observance on Friday, February 19. Whether you've never celebrated Shabbat before or you've never missed celebrating, you'll find encouragement and excitement in the kit's contents. New this year is a tape of the service produced by Sally Heckelman, who is the Religious School music teacher. To invite another Beth El family to your celebration, or to ask to be invited to a congregant's home, or to receive a copy

CONGREGATION BETH EL OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Shema

Off the Bimah

I return this month to my desk, schedule, routine, and especially to our congregation and community, following a wonderful and energizing six month sabbatical. My return coincides with the Torah cycle of Exodus, which itself points to the power of community and God's presence. In my visits to other congregations both here, in England, and in Israel, I was reminded regularly how each one of us must find our own community for intellectual and emotional support-and more. It is in community that we raise our families, do our work, define the very individuals who we come to be. While I enjoyed and benefited from exposure to other synagogues and congregations, I can say with assurance that there's no place like home.

Rabbi Jonathan Z. Maltzman

MITZVAH MALL TOTALS

For the last few years, Family Education has sponsored the Mitzvah Mall, a program which enables people to make donations and receive a gift card which they can then give in place of a gift. Once again this year your generous donations to the Mitzvah Mall have supported several charities for a total of $2,102: Bethesda Cares, $350; Capital Area Food Bank, $366; Mazon, $275; Magen David Adom, $113; Shepherd's Table, $330; Whitman Walker Clinic, $158; and American Jewish World Service, $510. We were able to nearly double our "sales" from last year, due in large part to the efforts of Abbie Eckland, who organized volunteers Carol Miller, Cindy Caplan and Janice Liebowitz to sell Mitzvot in the Rotunda on Sunday mornings. Thank you to all those who gave of their time and money! See you next year!

Bad News, Good News

Beth El Nursery School is currently missing its video camera. If anyone knows its whereabouts, please contact Ellen Darr at (301) 652-2606, ext. 311.

The Nursery School, Religious School and congregation thanks Peter and Debra Friedmann for their timely donation of a video camera and accessories.

LEARNERS' SERVICE

Our Learners' Service will meet on Saturday, February 20 in the Meeting Room from 10 a.m. to noon. We then join the congregation for kiddush. The service, once again conducted by Rabbi Rudolph, is designed for the novice worshipper. It moves slowly. It is very hands-on in orientation, from how to put on the talit, to knowing when to bow, to practicing how to have an aliyah. There is also a focus each time on a different major portion of the service. Questions and discussions are very much encouraged. No registration or advance sign-up required. Contact Rabbi Rudolph, (301) 652-2606, ext. 318, for more information.

All in the Family

Mazal Tov to Michele Herman on the marriage of her son, Andrew Herman, to Veronica Parkansky, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Michael Parkansky. They were married in San Francisco on December 31, 1998.

Mazal Tov to Erwin and Elaine Shalowitz on the birth of their grandson, Micah Toru Shalowitz, on December 16, 1998 in Palo Alto, CA. Micah is the son of Jonathan and Naomi Shalowitz.

Congregation Beth El wishes a speedy recovery to Clare Lerner and Josephine Stein.

The following letter was received from Lillian Kessler:

Dear Friends,

I'm truly honored to have been chosen "Person of the Year" by our Men's Club. (Frankly, there are several members equally worthy of this award.)

Whatever service I've given Beth El has provided its own reward - pleasure in helping our synagogue grow and in supporting Jewish causes. Additionally, Izzy and I enjoyed dear friendships among equally devoted coworkers in our years of shul efforts.

I sincerely thank the many Men's Club friends, the morning minyan daveners, Rabbi Rudolph, Hazzan Lubin and his wife Sandy, and Sisterhood's Joan Simon who joined my family and myself at the "Blue Yarmulke" ceremony at Adas Israel Synagogue. I look forward to attending such future ceremonies at which some of you will be the honorees.

Accept my sincere good wishes for the continuing success of our Men's Club service to Beth El.

Evening Minyan

The following people are asked to help us with our daily Evening Minyan for the next two weeks. On Sunday through Thursday, the Minyan begins at 8 p.m. and concludes at 8:15 p.m. During the week of your assignment, we would appreciate your attending as many evenings as possible, so that those who are saying Kaddish will have a minyan that they can attend at Beth El.

of the audio tape, contact Sarah Roark at (301) 652-2606, ext. 320.

As part of the Shabbat Shalom at Home observance, Sisterhood is sponsoring a Challah Baking Workshop from 9:15-11:30 a.m. on Friday, February 19. Julie Rabinowitz, who is chairing the workshop with Susan Brinn Siegel, is taking reservations at (301) 588-1271.

Last March, hundreds of Beth El families agreed to make one specially chosen Friday night a Shabbat like no other. Some families celebrated Shabbat in their homes for the first time, others added new rituals to their Friday evening observance, and many invited other families to join them. All experienced the sense of community, family and peace that Shabbat observance has brought to Jews for generations. Plan to make Friday, February 19 a special Shabbat for your family.

Steinsaltz Talmud in the Beth El Library

When the first volumes of the English language Steinsaltz Talmud were published about ten years ago, it was decided that the Beth El library ought to own this monumental work of scholarship. Consequently, we have been purchasing each volume as it has become available; the most recent is Volume 18. There are still many, many more volumes to be published in coming years.

Despite the high cost of these books (list price is about $65 each), they have been made part of the circulating collection so that Beth El members can take them home for study if they choose to do so. However, borrowing a library book requires that the borrower sign his/her name to the book card and leave the card to be filed. It also requires that the book come back in a reasonable period of time.

At present, Volumes 3, 10 and 16 of the Steinsaltz Talmud are missing. They are neither in the library nor properly checked out of the library, and they have been gone for many weeks. If anyone knows the whereabouts of these books, please inform the office or call the volunteer librarian, Evelyn Margolis, at (301) 530-6387.

BETH EL BOOK FAIR

Do you want to have input to Congress and the President regarding Social Security? Do you want to be involved in discussing your opinions on Social Security? Do you want to participate in a discussion with other Beth El congregants about Social Security? Do you want to learn more about Social Security and the various options being discussed to "save" it? You can now have these opportunities.

On Sunday, March 7, beginning at 10 a.m., the Beth El Men's Club, with the support of the Americans Discuss Social Security organization (funded by the Pew Charitable Trust), will conduct a program which will allow all participants to meet all of these goals and more! All participants will be given an information packet containing briefing sheets, watch a video, and participate in discussions. Results of the discussions will be sent in as a group and/or as individuals.

Mark your calendars! We will have sufficient materials available for a large number of participants. Remember, Social Security will not only affect our futures, but those of our children and grandchildren as well. Watch for more information in the Scroll and Shabbat Announcements.
